

OFFICIAL USE ONLY

Attachment 2

August 15, 1956

UN GENERAL ASSEMBLY ITEMS OF SPECIAL INTEREST TO LATIN AMERICAN GOVERNMENTS

The following items which will be coming up at the General Assembly this fall will be of special interest to one or more of the Latin American governments:

- 1). Antarctica.
- 2). Enlargement of the Security Council.
- 3). Enlargement of UN Economic and Social Council.
- 4). Enlargement of the International Court of Justice.
- 5). Enlargement of the International Law Commission.
- 6). Question of the establishment of a Special United Nations Fund for Economic Development. (SUNFED)
- 7). Territorial waters.

The foregoing are not to be considered as an indication of the full extent of special Latin American interests in various agenda items, since Latin American interest tends to be substantial with respect to any agenda items which involve the following general classes of subjects, for example:

- 1). Self-determination.
- 2). Colonial issues.
- 3). Human rights.
- 4). Economic development.
- 5). Technical assistance.
- 6). Membership in and election to various UN bodies.
- 7). Political issues, especially those involving world peace and security.

STATE-ARA/RPA:GNM

OFFICIAL USE ONLY